Eliminate silos and systematically mature your Integrated Risk Management program

With Corporater you can unify your risk, compliance, performance, strategy, internal audit, business continuity, and third-party risk activities on a single platform to drive and support a truly integrated risk management program.

Corporater enables you to establish, adapt, and mature a risk management program using industry best practices for integrated risk management. Mirror your organizational structures, automate processes and workflows, and set up deployment of comprehensive risk and compliance reports to provide your executive team and board members with a top level overview and actionable insights.

As your needs evolve, you can modify and scale your IRM program — add new entities and business units, create new dashboards, update workflows, etc., all while maintaining your initial taxonomy setup.

Corporater is fully configurable by endusers; no need for coding or development skills.

Corporater is listed in 2021 Gartner® “Competitive Landscape: Integrated Risk Management” report as a single-vendor suite (integrated) technology provider for Integrated Risk Management program.
